

6516206894.txt

Please leave satellite radio alone! It's need is tremendous to me. Being able to get traffic reports for the different areas I am in, being able to listen to a station that constantly has my local cities information on it is a great help. By taking this away, you would hinder my information path while I am on the road. Please leave XM radio and other satellite radio systems alone. Thank you,
Andy Ussach